

Beacon View Primary News

Dear Beacon View Families

It has been a really busy week for visitors and as usual, all have told me how impressed they are with our children. From our visiting authors, George Madgwick and his 400 Easter Eggs, to Rt Hon Penny Mordaunt MP, it has been lovely to show people how wonderful our school community is. I am so proud of what we have achieved together and look forward to what comes next for us. A huge well done to those children who were involved in the filming for BBC yesterday and I promise all children will get their Easter Egg next Thursday (and Friday for those on residential) – I will be sorting them for those with dietary needs over the weekend.

Have a lovely weekend and we look forward to seeing you all next week for the last week of this term.

Kind regards
Sally Hodgson

Easter Eggs

As you may have seen in the local news, we had a visit from George Madgwick on Thursday. George had seen that our sister school The Victory School had written to the local community asking for donations, and George approached us to ask if we were doing the same. We explained that we had not as we did not want to put pressure on local businesses with a second school asking for donations, and we had also been very fortunate to receive donations at Christmas time to be able to host our Community Christmas lunch which we intend doing again this year. George then generously offered to donate the eggs to us himself. We are absolutely delighted to receive these from George as a local business man, and look forward to handing them out to the children next week.

Polite reminder

Please may we ask that you are respectful and vigilant of others on school pathways.

Author visits

KS1 loved meeting Guy Parker-Rees on Tuesday, they listened to how he comes up with new characters and makes a story board before writing a book, watched Guy draw a character of their choosing and listened to Giraffes Can't Dance.

KS2 met with Stephen Lenton on Thursday. Stephen shared his story and character development. On both meet the Author days the children had fun designing, drawing and naming a character for their own story.

Parents Consultation Evenings

Don't forget to book your slots for parents evening on Wednesday 29th and Thursday 30th, whether it be virtual or in person. This is for all classes except Astute, Victorious and Defender due to the residential. Letters for these classes will be sent out after Easter.

Travelling Book Fair

We are holding a book fair on both Parent Consultation evenings. Please follow the signs and take a look at the books available. You could earn books for our school.

The Great British Spring Clean

Beacon View has joined the Keep Britain Tidy event this spring. We have pledged to pick up one bag of litter per pupil to help make a difference to our school and wider communities.
